Division of Flood Management

Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings Coming - Fall 2010

July 2010

Department of Water Resources

What are Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings?

The Department of Water Resources (DWR), Flood Operations Center (FOC), along with our local, state, and federal partners will provide an overview of current and future weather, water conditions, DWR flood preparedness and emergency response activities, flood fight methods, and other related topics.

Who should attend these meetings?

Water managers, emergency responders, and managers who deal with flood preparedness and response.

FOC staff will be hosting meetings in the following locations:

Northern California

Stockton – September 20th
Yuba City – September 21st
San Jose – September 23rd
Sacramento – September 27th
Eureka – Early November

Southern California

Ventura County – September 28th
Riverside County – September 29th

This year, DWR would like to encourage meeting attendees to forward, in advance, any new topics of interest or specific questions they would like covered by the presenters to the Flood Operations Center Coordinator:
