The Division of Environmental Services

WATER QUALITY • COMPLIANCE & EVALUATION • PLANNING • RESTORATION • INVASIVE SPECIES

Dean Messer, Chief

Provides complex scientific and environmental analyses, monitoring, and documentation to support management of California's water resources while protecting, restoring, and enhancing natural and human environments.

Office of Water Quality

Environmental Water Quality & Estuarine Studies Branch
- Special Studies
- Bay Delta Monitoring & Analysis
- Environmental Real-Time Monitoring & Support
- Aquatic Ecology

Municipal Water Quality Program Branch
- Municipal Water Quality Investigations
- Water Quality Special Studies
- Field Support
- Quality Assurance/Quality Control

Bryte Chemical Laboratory

Environmental Planning & Information Branch
- Suisun Marsh Planning
- Suisun Marsh Compliance & Monitoring
- Environmental Document Review
- Environmental Compliance Information Management

Delta Habitat Conservation & Conveyance Program

Office of Environmental Compliance

Environmental Compliance & Evaluation Branch
- Special Projects Coordination
- Environmental Site Assessment
- Environmental Studies & Compliance
- Cutural, Recreation & Environmental Planning

Ecological Studies Branch
- Feather River Program
- Habitat Restoration
- Aquatic Restoration Planning & Implementation
- Mercury Monitoring & Evaluation
- Feather River Special Studies

Mitigation & Restoration Branch
- Special Investigations
- Restoration Planning, Monitoring & Implementation
- Bay Delta Conservation Plan
- Mitigation Agreements

Regulatory Compliance

CHRIS Information Center
- Literature Research

NAHC
- Outreach to Native American Community
- Ongoing

Field Survey

Site Recordation

Archaeological Testing

Report Writing

Resource Monitoring