

Delta Science Program presents two seminars

The Delta Science Program, the Ecosystem Restoration Program, and the Surface Water Ambient Monitoring Program will present a seminar February 14 in Sacramento, titled "Observing the Water Balance in the Sierra Nevada: Southern Sierra Critical Zone and American River Hydrologic Observatories." Dr. Martha Conklin from the University of California, Merced, will make this presentation. More information is here.

Also, the Delta Science Program and the University of California, Davis Center for Aquatic Biology and Aquaculture will sponsor a seminar February 18 at the UC Davis campus, titled "Lower Food Web Dynamics in California's Bay-Delta Ecosystem: Current Understanding and Future Interactions with a Changing Landscape." Dr. Sami Souissi from the University of Lille, France, will lead the discussion. More information is here.

CVFPB will conduct its strategic plan and budget workshops

The Central Valley Flood Protection Board (CVFPB) will conduct its strategic plan and budget workshops February 14 in Sacramento. Agenda is here.

EPA releases phase II of the National Stormwater Calculator

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has released phase II of the National Stormwater Calculator and Climate Assessment Tool package. The updated calculator includes future climate vulnerability scenarios. More information is in this news release.

Video of draft BDCP Effects Analysis review is online

The video from the January 28-29 independent science panel meeting that reviewed the Bay Delta Conservation Plan (BDCP) Effects Analysis is now online. The panel was convened by the Delta Stewardship Council's Delta Science Program to conduct the third phase of its review of the draft BDCP Effects Analysis and Associated Technical Appendices.

Save the date - March 27 WEF Executive Briefing

The Water Education Foundation (WEF) will hold its 2014 Executive Briefing March 27 in Sacramento. The topics for this one-day event are:

- The BDCP: Is it Ripe for a Solution?
- California Groundwater: Tapping Out.
- Will There Be a Water Bond on Your 2014 Ballot?
- The Colorado River Drought: Increasing the Odds of an Official Shortage. What Then?
- Watershed Management from the Sierra to the Delta.

More information, including registration and cost, is here.

Subscribe

Unsubscribe

Outreach Website

