

Council requests public comments on draft document

The Delta Stewardship Council (Council) hosted an Environmental Data Summit, June 5-6, to explore challenges identified by the Delta Science Plan, which yielded a vision document, titled Enhancing the Vision for Managing California's Environmental Information. The public is invited to review and comment on this draft document by March 18. The draft document, how to submit comments, and other information are here.

CVFPB meeting includes USACE and DWR reports

The Central Valley Flood Protection Board (CVFPB) will meet February 27 in Sacramento. Agenda items include a U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) briefing on Public Law 84-99 Levee Rehabilitation Program policy revision procedures, a DWR status report on Cache Creek Settling Basin operations and maintenance, and an update on the 2017 Central Valley Flood Protection Plan.

Seminar topic is sturgeon conservation and management

The Delta Stewardship Council Science Program and the University of California, Davis, Center for Aquatic Biology and Aquaculture will present a day-long seminar March 3 in Davis, titled Sturgeon in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Watershed - New Insights to Support Conservation and Management. The seminar is free and open to the public.

Herbicide treatment of invasive aquatic weeds begins in Delta

The California Dept. of Parks and Recreation, Division of Boating and Waterways will begin herbicide treatment of the invasive aquatic weeds, water hyacinth and spongeplant, in the Delta beginning March 4 and continuing through the end of November. More information is in this news release.

ISB meeting will plan its review of recirculated BDCP

The Delta Independent Science Board (ISB) will meet March 5 in Sacramento to plan its review of the recirculated portions of the Bay Delta Conservation Plan (BDCP) and the Data Summit white paper, and hear an update about the Fish, Flows, and Other Stressors program review. Public meeting notice is here.

PPIC's new report, California's Future, mentions Delta often

The Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC) has published California's Future. This report highlights the state's most pressing long-term policy challenges in several key areas. The "Water" chapter, beginning on page 54, mentions the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta often.

Subscribe Unsubscribe Web site

