

Discussion on Delta levee standards to be held next month

A conference to discuss Delta levee standards will be held Wednesday, May 2, in Sacramento. The conference is sponsored by the Delta Protection Commission and the Water Education Foundation. DWR, Delta residents and other stakeholders will offer their viewpoints on appropriate levee standards for the Delta.

Water commission hosting discussion on BDCP financing issues

The California Water Commission will hear an update on Bay Delta Conservation Plan (BDCP) and related financing issues at a meeting on Wednesday, April 18, in Sacramento. The agenda includes a panel discussion with representatives from water agencies. A webcast of the meeting will be available.

Workshop will provide recap and next steps for CVFPP

A workshop on the Central Valley Flood Protection Plan (CVFPP) is set for Friday, April 20, in Sacramento. The Central Valley Flood Protection Board will hear an overview of the plan before getting a recap of public comments on the CVFPP. There will also be a discussion on the next steps in the process of adopting the plan.

DWR taking comments on draft plan for flood protection criteria

Public comments are being accepted for DWR's draft Urban Level of Flood Protection Criteria. It provides a method for local governments to determine a level of flood protection before making development decisions. Details on the criteria and instructions for submitting comments by the May 4 deadline are available here.

Agricultural floodplain management on agenda at FMA lunch

This month's luncheon for the Floodplain Management Association (FMA) will feature the presentation "Agricultural Floodplain Management: New Appropriate Changes," by Sutter County Supervisor Stan Cleveland. The presentation will be part of a luncheon on Thursday, April 19, in Sacramento. RSVP information and other details are available in this announcement.

Land use decisions to be discussed at Caltrans summit

The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) will hold a summit meeting next month to discuss how land use decisions will factor into its vision for the state's transportation system. The California Interregional Blueprint Summit will be Wednesday, May 23, in Sacramento. A webcast of the summit will allow online viewers to participate in the panel discussions.

Subscribe

Unsubscribe

Outreach Website

Follow
DWR on Facebook

For more information about the Delta visit: www.water.ca.gov/deltainit/

We welcome your comments and suggestions. Contact us at delta@water.ca.gov

