

Delta Plan scoping meetings scheduled throughout California

The Delta Stewardship Council (DSC) has released the schedule for a series of scoping meetings on the Delta Plan Environmental Impact Report. The meetings will give agencies and individuals a chance to provide their ideas on the future of the Delta. Seven scoping meetings will be held throughout the state beginning Tuesday, Jan. 18, in Diamond Bar. The complete schedule, plus directions and agendas, are available on the DSC website.

Webinars offer chance for input on water issues

Join the Center for Collaborative Policy for upcoming webinars to help develop ways to enhance regional collaboration on water management programs and issues. This regional outreach will cover integrated water management at local, regional and statewide levels. The webinars will be Friday, Feb. 4, and Wednesday, Feb. 9. Links and additional materials will be posted here within the next week.

Agriculture tourism ideas to be discussed in Rio Vista

The University of California Small Farm Program and the UC Cooperative Extension are sponsoring an agritourism workshop for the Delta. It will be held Wednesday, Feb. 2, in Rio Vista. The day will include the sharing of marketing ideas and discussion of agritourism opportunities. More details and registration information are available here.

Location set for first tribal water plan update meeting

A location has been chosen for the inaugural meeting of the Tribal Advisory Committee for California Water Plan Update 2013. It will be held in Training Rooms B and C at the East-End Complex Building (Department of Public Health) in Sacramento on Friday, Feb. 25. Go to the Update 2013 Tribal Engagement website for directions and meeting materials as they become available.

Webcast available for next CWC meeting

The meeting notice and agenda are now available for the next meeting of the California Water Commission. It will be held Wednesday, Jan. 19, in Sacramento. A live webcast of the meeting can be seen here. A replay of the webcast will be available beginning early in the afternoon on Thursday, Jan. 20.

Interim Strategic Plan on Delta Conservancy agenda

The next meeting of the Delta Conservancy will be Wednesday, Jan. 19 in West Sacramento. The agenda and meeting materials are available online. Following a closed session in the morning, the afternoon agenda includes an update on the Interim Strategic Plan. The Delta Conservancy recently changed its monthly meeting to the third Wednesday of each month.

Australian water tour making three stops in California

This month, the Australian Trade Commission will make three stops in California as part of a national water tour. The program will highlight Australia's experience with climate change, its approaches to water policy, and how its ideas can benefit the United States. The tour will stop in Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Sacramento. Details and registration information are available on the Australian Trade Commission website.

Subscribe

Unsubscribe

Outreach Website

For more information about the Delta visit: www.water.ca.gov/deltainit/

We welcome your comments and suggestions. Contact us at delta@water.ca.gov

