

DSC meeting today,
tomorrow to discuss Delta Plan draft

The Delta Stewardship Council (DSC) is meeting today and tomorrow, May 12 and 13, in West Sacramento, to discuss the third staff draft of the Delta Plan. The agenda includes an item on the general direction of the fourth staff draft, which is expected to be released later this month.

Abandoned vessel discussion tops
DPC agenda

The Delta Protection Commission (DPC) will be meeting Tuesday, May 31, in Walnut Grove to discuss the problem of abandoned vessels in the Delta. The agenda is still being finalized, but a meeting notice has been posted. Information on the problem of abandoned vessels is available on the DPC website.

Delta Conservancy puts out request for help with strategic plan

The Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Conservancy has released a request for proposals (RFP) for its strategic plan completion. Copies of the RFP can be obtained here. The conservancy is looking for a contractor with experience in project management and technical services needed to complete the strategic plan. The final submittal deadline is Friday, May 27. The next conservancy meeting will be Wednesday, May 18, in West Sacramento.

Brown bag seminar features new watershed model

The Delta Science Program is co-sponsoring a brown bag seminar on a new watershed model that uses in-stream measurements to predict long-term values of water quality. The seminar will be Monday, May 16, in Sacramento. The featured speakers are Dina Saleh and Joseph Domagalski of the U.S. Geological Survey.

Water commission meeting next week to finalize regulations

The California Water Commission will meet Wednesday, May 18, in Sacramento to approve final industrial process water regulations and agricultural water measurement regulations developed under SBX7-7. Details and an agenda are available in a meeting notice. There will be no webcast of this meeting. A recording will be available on the Water Commission's website the following day.

DSC launches
new-look website,
seeks feedback

The DSC is looking for feedback on the new look of its website. The changes were made in order to make it easier to browse through the system or to find research materials. The DSC is hoping to get input on improvements that would make the website a more useful tool. Comments can be sent here.

SubscribeUnsubscribeOutreach Website

Follow
DWR on Facebook

For more information about the Delta visit: www.water.ca.gov/deltainit/

We welcome your comments and suggestions. Contact us at delta@water.ca.gov

