

DSC sets agenda for next week's meeting in Sacramento

The next meeting of the Delta Stewardship Council (DSC) will include a briefing on ideas for the Bay Delta Conservation Plan's implementation structure. The agenda also has members of the State Water Resources Control Board discussing their proposal to revise flow objectives for the lower San Joaquin River and revise salinity objectives in the southern Delta. The meeting will be Thursday, Feb. 21, in Sacramento.

Two public meetings scheduled for Delta island and levee study

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will hold two public meetings next week to explain the process and goals of its Delta Islands and Levees Feasibility Study. The meetings will be Tuesday, Feb. 19, in Clarksburg and Wednesday, Feb. 20, in Sacramento. Details are available here. The corps also has a webpage with information on its entire Delta program.

Delta Conservancy prepares for open house, meeting

The Delta Conservancy has two events coming up in the next week. On Friday, Feb. 15, it will host an open house at its new office in West Sacramento. Details are available in this flier. The conservancy's program and policy subcommittee will meet at the new office on Wednesday, Feb. 20. It will include discussion on the Natural Resources Defense Council's conceptual alternative to the Bay Delta Conservation Plan.

New location chosen for this week's Delta ISB meeting

The Delta Independent Science Board (ISB) has changed the location for its meeting today and tomorrow, Feb. 14 and 15. It will be in the Sierra Room of the CalEPA building in Sacramento. Tomorrow's agenda includes a presentation from the U.S. Geological Survey on its Delta habitat restoration review.

State, federal agencies consider a number of delta smelt plans

State and federal officials are conferring on measures needed to protect the threatened delta smelt. DWR, the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the California Department of Fish and Wildlife are in on the discussions. They are looking at a number of ways to best meet the needs of the fish and water users. Details are in this news release.

Water board and flood board post meeting agendas

The agenda for a meeting in Sacramento on Tuesday, Feb. 19, has been posted by the State Water Resources Control Board. One of the items is an update from the Delta Watermaster on recent activities in the Delta. The Central Valley Flood Protection Board will meet Friday, Feb. 22, in Sacramento. The meeting details and agenda are posted here.

