

Dates chosen for next BDCP, CWC public meetings

Details are still being developed, but the next Bay Delta Conservation Plan (BDCP) meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 29, in Sacramento. Updates and meeting information will be posted here. The California Water Commission (CWC) will meet Wednesday, Dec. 12, in Sacramento. The agenda and webcast information will be posted on the CWC meeting page as it becomes available.

Portions of Bay-Delta Plan workshops now available on video

The State Water Resources Control Board has released a series of videos from its three workshops to review the 2006 Bay-Delta Plan. The workshops started in September, and the last one was held this week. They included review of potential modifications to current objectives in the Bay-Delta Plan.

CRWFS makes the case for expanding water storage plans

The California Roundtable on Water and Food Supply (CRWFS) has released a report that makes the case for expanded approaches to storing water. From Storage to Retention: Expanding California's Options for Meeting Its Water Needs emphasizes a range of opportunities for increasing retention of water in the landscape.

Water marketing and groundwater banking on PPIC agenda

A meeting on water marketing and groundwater banking will be hosted by the Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC) on Thursday, Nov. 29, in Sacramento. It will feature key findings from a recent PPIC update and a panel discussion with water policy experts. Details are available here. Registration will be available at the door, but advance registration is requested.

Registration discount for watershed forum still available

The 2012 Statewide Watershed Management Forum will be held next month in Folsom. The two-day event on Dec. 12 and 13 will focus on collaborative opportunities to manage California's river basins. The final agenda will be posted within the next couple of weeks. A reduced registration fee will be available until Saturday, Nov. 17. The final agenda will be posted by Dec. 1.

Bay dredging workshop set to be held in Oakland

The Bay Planning Coalition will hold a workshop on Monday, Nov. 26, in Oakland to discuss the disposal of dredged materials in San Francisco Bay and the details of environmental mitigation banking. Representatives from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, regulators and others will look at elements of a long-term management strategy.

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday there will be no edition of the Delta eNews next week. The next issue will be published on Nov. 29.

Subscribe

Unsubscribe

Outreach Website

Follow
DWR on
Facebook

