

Project Summary Sheet

Project Name: Flood Conservation, Habitat Restoration and Recharge Project
Tracking No: 4017

Location: San Diego R. in Lakeside area      County: San Diego

Project Sponsor: San Diego River Park-Lakeside Conservancy

Point of Contact: Robin Rierden

Co-applicant(s): Riverview Water District

Assembly District: Senate District:

Project Description (including size): River flood way significantly constrained by past design, urbanization, and sedimentation. Channeled in to a 30 foot wide chokepoint – which is proposed for elimination through this restoration project that proposes to acquire 2 parcels, 102 ac. and 23 ac., (among a number of others) and widen the river and reestablish native plant riparian community.

Flood Benefits: At least 4 floods have caused significant damage in locality; this project is designed to alleviate future flooding.

Agricultural Benefits: N/A

Agricultural Land Conserved, acres, if any: N/A

Wildlife Benefits: reestablishment of plant community and habitat

Wildlife Habitat Conserved, acres, if any: at least 125 acres

Total area conserved:.. part of larger scheme

Other Benefits : recreation

Total Cost: $11,822,440

FPCP Cost: $ 4,139,040

Funding Partners and Share of Cost:

State Coastal Conservancy
Wildlife Conservation Board
Prop. 40 funds