2014 California Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings

Department of Water Resources

What are the Preseason Flood Coordination Meetings?

As flood managers, prepare and coordinate for the coming flood season:

- Meet flood emergency response partners
- Communicate the expectations of our agencies under the State Emergency Plan and SEMS/NIMS
- Learn the status of available flood fighting resources

Who should attend these meetings?

- Managers and key emergency responders from California public agencies with primary responsibility for flood emergency response and coordination
- Tribal governments, counties, cities, flood control districts, reclamation districts, and local maintaining agencies

State-Federal Flood Operations Center Staff, in partnership with county Offices of Emergency Services, will host meetings in the following locations. You can attend any meeting that is convenient.
