

Surface Water Diverter Compliance

As defined in the IRWM Grant Program Guidelines, CWC §5100 requires surface water diverters to submit surface water diversion reports to the State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB). There are no surface water diverters included as either project proponents or partners included in this grant proposal which must comply with the surface water diverter requirement. Therefore, SWRCB verification documentation is not included with this proposal.