

Surface Water Diverter Compliance

Project proponents that divert surface water supply and are subject to the State Water Resources Control Board's (SWRCB) diversion reporting requirements per CWC Section 5100 are listed below with their agency contact information.

Rancho California Water District: RCWD currently diverts surface water from the Temecula Creek Tributary of the Santa Margarita River and submits annual water diversion Progress Reports to the SWRCB under Permit No. 7032 in compliance with requirements outlined in Part 5.1 (commencing with 5100) of Division 2 of the CWC (see Appendix D).

Surface Water Diversion Compliance Contact:
Rancho California Water District
Rich Ottolini
(951) 296-6954
ottolinir@ranchowater.com

Eastern Municipal Water District: EMWD currently diverts surface water from San Jacinto River and submits annual water diversion Progress Reports to the SWRCB under License No. 010667 in compliance with requirements outlined in Part 5.1 (commencing with 5100) of Division 2 of the CWC (see Appendix D).

Surface Water Diversion Compliance Contact:
Eastern Municipal Water District
Michael Nusser
Water Resources Planning Manager
(951) 928-3777, ext. 4514
mnusser@emwd.org

Western Municipal Water District: WMWD currently diverts surface water from the Santa Ana River through a permit owned by the San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District and submits annual water diversion Progress Reports to the SWRCB under License No. 21264 and 21265 in compliance with requirements outlined in Part 5.1 (commencing with 5100) of Division 2 of the CWC (see Appendix D).

Surface Water Diversion Compliance Contact:
Western Municipal Water District
Tim Barr
Deputy Director of Water Resources
(951) 571-7254
tbarr@wmwd.com