

Attachment 1: Authorization and Eligibility Requirements (6 of 9)

---

Agricultural Water Management Compliance

No agricultural water suppliers will receive funding. The City of Santa Cruz has 34 active “coast irrigation” accounts that receive untreated water on the North Coast. These use about 2% of the City’s water supply for agricultural purposes. The City of Santa Cruz is not required to have an Agricultural Water Management Plan. Neither Soquel Creek Water District or the Davenport County Sanitation District are agricultural water suppliers.