Proof of Formal Adoption

The East Contra Costa County Functionally Equivalent IRWMP was adopted in July 2005. The signature pages with dates of signature for this document are included in this attachment.

The East Contra Costa IRWMP is currently being updated and is anticipated to be adopted in July 2013.

Based on the answer to question number 12 in the Frequently Asked Questions and Responses for the Proposition 84 Round 2 Implementation Grant Solicitation released by DWR on March 18, 2013 (accessed here:

http://www.water.ca.gov/irwm/grants/docs/ImplementationGrants/ImplementationPSP_FAQ_20130318.pdf), because the project proponents adopted the 2005 East Contra Costa County IRWMP, letters of intent are not required and have not been included in this Proposal.
