DWR Announces Lake Oroville Spillways Community Meetings

SACRAMENTO – The California Department of Water Resources (DWR) is hosting two public meetings to update communities in the region about the ongoing Lake Oroville Spillways recovery effort. The meetings will provide an opportunity for DWR to update community members on the operations plan for Lake Oroville during the 2017-18 rainy season as well as construction plans for 2018. Members of the public will have opportunities to ask questions as part of each meeting. Both meetings will have a similar agenda, format and content.
