

Salton Sea Water Habitat Pilot Project, Imperial Irrigation District

The Imperial Irrigation District's project will develop a process for reclamation of hyper-saline water from the Salton Sea to supply and maintain a ¼ acre shallow marine habitat pond on recently exposed playa.

The project will be located on the southeast shore of the Salton Sea.