

California Water Plan 2009

Wednesday's Update

Oct 3, 2007

North Coast will host final Regional Workshop

Those on the North Coast are preparing for the Water Plan's final Regional Workshop, which will be held in Fortuna on Oct. 11. The workshop is sponsored by the North Coast Integrated Regional Water Management Plan. You can find an announcement and agenda here. Presentations will include updates on regional water management plans and regional flood plans.

More water rights info now on line

The State Water Resources Control Board's Electronic Water Rights Information Management System (eWRIMS) is up and running. The eWRIMS computer database tracks information on water rights in California including listing water right permits and licenses. The eWRIMS has both a tabular database and an integrated information system (GIS). You can search eWRIMS data by several criteria, including water right owner's name, watershed, stream system, and county. The new system was deployed on Monday and replaces the State Water Board's previous water right computer system, WRIMS.

Reminder: Annual plenary meeting set for Oct. 22, 23 in Sacramento

Make plans to attend the Water Plan's annual conference-style meeting that brings together stakeholders, Advisory Committee, State Agency Steering Committee, Tribal groups, regional representatives, and State agency staff. It will be held in Sacramento on Oct. 22, 23. Details of the meeting can be found here on our Web site.

Six new organizations agree to participate on Advisory Committee

To broaden the categories of water stakeholder interests participating on the CWP Update public Advisory Committee, six new organizations have accepted the invitation to participate. A new-member orientation's planned for Oct. 16, and the new representatives' first opportunity to participate will be the CWP Plenary Meeting on Oct. 22, 23.

The new members are Elizabeth Gavric, California Association of Realtors; Rex Hime, California Business Properties Association (Matthew Hargrove, alternate); Mike Hardesty, California Central Valley Flood Control Association; Pete Parkinson, California Chapter of the American Planning Association (Sandy George, alternate); John Hopkins, Institute for Ecological Health; Kathleen Farren, Trust for Public Land.
