Workshop allows public to advise DWR on scenarios

DWR will hold a public workshop on June 11, next Wednesday, to refine development of scenario themes for Water Plan Update 2009. Scenarios describe different plausible views of the future based on uncertain factors facing water managers. Workshop participants will have the opportunity to advise DWR on the specific scenario themes proposed for Update 2009. You can read more here.

UCD students start special site for water community

A group of UCD graduate students has started a Scientific Information Syndication WEBSITE (SISWEB). "It's a nice place to find out what is popular on the Internet among the water community," according to the Web site. You can reach the site by double-clicking here.

Materials, presentations from All Regions Forum now posted online

In case you couldn't make it to the Water Plan's All Regions Forum held earlier this week in San Jose, we've posted all meeting materials and presentations on our Web site. You can find those documents here.

Neighbors in Nevada have helpful water glossary online

If you've ever been confused by a word in a technical water document, here's a Web site that may be helpful. The Nevada Department of Water Resources has an online water glossary with everything from "A-Horizon" to "Zoo Plankton." We suggest you bookmark this site.
