

California Water Plan eNews

VISION

- Public Health, Safety, Quality of Life
- Vitality, Productivity, Economic Growth
- Healthy Ecosystem, Cultural Heritage

Foundational Actions for SUSTAINABLE WATER USES

- Use Water Efficiently
- Protect Water Quality
- Expand Environmental Stewardship

Initiatives for RELIABLE WATER SUPPLIES

- Implement Integrated Regional Water Management
- Improve Statewide Water and Flood Management Systems

Wednesday's Update

Feb. 8, 2012

Subscribe

Comments/Suggestions

Unsubscribe

Follow DWR on Facebook

This weekly electronic newsletter is designed to keep you current on California Water Plan news. We welcome comments, suggestions and any news tips that may be of interest to water planners.

Updating water commission on ag water regulation, Delta levee program

An update on the Agricultural Water Measurement Regulation is on the agenda for the next meeting of the California Water Commission. It is set for Wednesday, Feb. 15, in Sacramento. Commissioners will also receive an update on the Delta Levees Special Projects Program.

Technical attachments for flood plan made available for public review

Several technical attachments for the draft 2012 Central Valley Flood Protection Plan have been released for public review. Organized by volume, 24 of 30 attachments are now available. The rest are expected to be released later this month. Instructions for submitting comments are available on the Central Valley Flood Protection Plan website.

Draft water delivery report, technical addendum, ready for public comment

DWR has released the draft State Water Project Delivery Reliability Report 2011.

It describes current and future water supply conditions for the State Water Project. The technical addendum has also been released. Comments are being accepted until Monday, March 12. Instructions for submitting them are available on the DWR website.

DFG hosting climate change stakeholder meeting next week

The California Department of Fish and Game (DFG) will be hosting a climate change stakeholder meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 21, in Sacramento. The agenda includes this year's goals for the DFG's Climate Science Program. The stakeholder group works to develop a vision for addressing climate change effects on fish, wildlife and habitats in California.

FRAP looking for stakeholder input on forest and rangeland reports

The California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection's Fire and Resource Assessment Program (FRAP) and the U.S. Forest Service are looking for input on the next strategy report for California's forests and rangelands. Stakeholders are invited to attend a meeting Thursday, March 1, in Davis. The agenda and webcast details are available here. The 2010 California forests and rangelands assessment and strategy reports are available online.

Draft guidelines released for groundwater project grants up to $250,000

Public comments are being accepted on the draft guidelines and proposal solicitation package for Local Groundwater Assistance (LGA) funding. A guideline workshop will be held Thursday, Feb. 23, in Sacramento. Workshop details and instructions for submitting comments are available in this news release. LGA provides local public agencies with grants of up to $250,000 for groundwater studies or projects. Approximately $4.7 million in funding is available for the current fiscal year.

Click on links below for more information.

Upcoming Meetings

Water Plan Website