

INTEGRATE

ALIGN

INVEST

Wednesday Update*June 3, 2015*

This weekly electronic newsletter is designed to keep you current on California Water Plan news. We welcome comments, suggestions and any news tips that may be of interest to water planners.

WATER PLAN

CALENDAR

COMMENTS /
SUGGESTIONSSUBSCRIBE /
UNSUBSCRIBE

DWR previews strategies for future of integrated regional water management

At last month's Integrated Regional Water Management (IRWM) Conference in San Diego, DWR released an exhibit describing a vision, strategies, and actions necessary to sustain and expand the practice of IRWM into the future. It was developed after years of discussions with stakeholders. The exhibit is a preview of what will be included in the upcoming report, Strategies for the Future of Integrated Regional Water Management in California.

California EcoRestore looks to improve 30,000 acres in the Delta

The California Natural Resources Agency has launched a new Web site dedicated to restoration in the Sacramento-

CALIFORNIA
ECO RESTORE
A STRONGER DELTA ECOSYSTEM.

San Joaquin River Delta. California EcoRestore is an initiative to restore 30,000 acres of Delta habitat during the next four years. Potential projects could cover aquatic, tidal, and riparian needs.

Landis agrees to take California Water Commission executive officer post

Paula Landis has agreed to serve as the new executive officer for the California Water Commission. She has more than 27 years of experience working for state and federal agencies focused on water resources planning and management. Since 2010, Landis has been chief of DWR's Division of Integrated Regional Water Management.

Sierra Water Workgroup sets August date for annual workshop

The Sierra Water Workgroup's annual workshop is set for Monday, Aug. 10, in North Lake Tahoe. The agenda will focus on the quantity, quality, and use of the Sierra water supply. Debbie Davis, from the Governor's Office of Planning and Research, will be the keynote speaker.

Water progress report offers update on direct potable reuse

A progress report on the California Direct Potable Reuse (DPR) Initiative has been released by the WaterReuse Research Foundation and WaterReuse California. It covers the recent activities, decisions, and funding related to DPR. The initiative was launched in 2012 to advance DPR as a water supply option in California.

Biennial conference for San Francisco Bay-Delta Estuary to be held late this summer

The biennial conference on the state of the San Francisco Bay-Delta Estuary will be Sept. 17 and 18, in Oakland. The conference will cover the management and ecological health of the estuary. The San Francisco Estuary Partnership will accept poster abstracts through Friday, June 12.

