

INTEGRATE

ALIGN

INVEST

Wednesday UpdateSept. 13, 2017

This weekly electronic newsletter is designed to keep you current on California Water Plan news. We welcome comments, suggestions, and any news tips that may be of interest to water planners.

WATER PLAN

CALENDAR

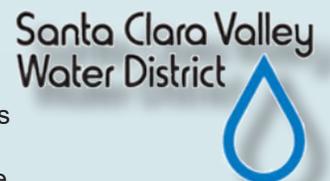

COMMENTS /
SUGGESTIONSSUBSCRIBE /
UNSUBSCRIBE

Water commission agenda includes look at California water infrastructure studies

The next meeting of the California Water Commission will include discussion on several recent studies related to the state's water infrastructure. The recently released System Reoperation Study, which looks at strategies for improving water supply reliability and flood protection, is on the discussion list. The meeting will be Wednesday, Sept. 20, in Sacramento.

Webinar will explain development of long-term water resources plan

A webinar, explaining how Santa Clara County put together a 50-year water resources plan, will be held Tuesday, Sept. 19. The plan provides an integrated, multi-benefit strategy for water resources management. During the webinar, a representative of the Santa Clara Valley Water District will talk about the plan's development and the ongoing support efforts.

Groundwater sustainability plan information available at DWR workshop

DWR will be hosting a workshop to provide assistance in the development of groundwater sustainability plans required under the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act. Department staff will be available to provide overviews of tools and data, plus have information on sustainable groundwater planning grants. The workshop will be Wednesday, Sept. 20, in Clovis.

AGI releases report and videos from regional groundwater resources forum

The American Geosciences Institute (AGI) has published the final report from last year's forum, "Addressing Changes in Regional Groundwater Resources: Lessons from the High Plains Aquifer." AGI has also released videos of presentations made during the forum.

Priorities for California's water will be discussed during PPIC event in Sacramento

The Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC) will host an event Thursday, Oct. 26, in Sacramento, to examine priorities for the state's water. There will be discussion on managing California's water supply, and a look at critical decisions facing the Delta. Legislative priorities will also be covered during the event.

Bay Area conference to provide updates on the San Francisco Estuary

The biennial State of the San Francisco Estuary Conference is set for Oct. 10-11, in Oakland. It will provide updates on the estuary's watershed, recovery programs, and challenges. Early bird registration fees are available through Tuesday, Sept. 19.

California invasive plant symposium set for next month in Palm Springs

The latest information on invasive plant biology and management will be presented at the annual California Invasive Plant Council Symposium on Oct. 24-27, in Palm Springs. The information will include the details on herbicides and non-chemical management. The final day of the symposium will feature field trips to observe local invasive plant management.

