

Agenda

Statewide Water Analysis Network Workshop

Case Studies in Implementing Scenarios for Regional Planning

September 17th, 2007

3:00 PM – 6:00 PM

Marriot Ontario Airport Hotel

2200 East Holt Blvd

Ontario, CA 91761

Meeting Objectives:

1. Describe Statewide Water Analysis Network (SWAN) and its roles in CWP Update 2009
2. Describe use of scenarios in the California Water Plan
3. Present case studies in implementing scenarios for regional planning
4. Solicit feedback for implementing scenarios for Water Plan Update 2009

Agenda Items:

1. Introductions – Rich Juricich, DWR (5 minutes)
2. Description of SWAN and its role in preparing CWP Update 2009 – Rich Juricich (10 minutes)
3. Use of Scenarios in the California Water Plan – Rich Juricich (20 minutes)
4. Motivation for enhancing the CWP Update 2005 scenario approach – David Purkey, Stockholm Environment Institute (10 minutes)
5. Simple supply and demand scenarios for Southern California – David Groves, RAND (10 minutes)
6. Integrated water management scenarios for the Sacramento Hydrologic Region – David Purkey and David Yates, National Center for Atmospheric Research (20 minutes)
7. Integrated water management scenarios for the Inland Empire – David Groves (20 minutes)
8. Lesson learned for future applications – All (15 minutes)
9. Discussion - (1 hour)