A FRAMEWORK FOR ACTION Update 2005

Department of Water Resources Bulletin 160-05 December 2005

Regional Reports Outline Changes

In response to the feedback we've received, the new regional reports will be:

- Broader in scope (including flood management and other new topics),
- More collaborative (with more contributions from regional water interests and other state agencies), and
- Emphasizing integrated regional planning, with the setting & current water condition information providing a background for discussing current & future regional water issues
