

WATERSHED MANAGEMENT AND LAND USE
TWS: APRIL 25, 10:30 PM – 12:00 PM

Meeting Concept:

This session focuses on integrating aspects of Tribal ecological knowledge and indigenous water rights into:

- Local, regional, and statewide watershed planning and projects, and;
- External projects that define and affect Tribal communities, homelands and trust lands.

Meeting Goals:

ITEM #	TIME	CONTENT	PRESENTER	Design Team Notes	Additional Comments
1	15 min.	WELCOME, INTRODUCTIONS, overview of story and the beginning of the thread	Moderator: Paula		Moderator to discuss: What do we mean by “We all drink from the same water” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Bridge the difficulty for people understanding water as sacred—water as essential to life. ■ Begin the story of how CA water and land use policy have impacted Tribes and how Tribes are responding
2	10 min.	Tuolumne Me-Wuk story (Central)	Possible: Stephanie Suess Assigned Tribal TAC representative	This panelist will discuss the Tuolumne Tribe’s water supply and relationship with Tuolumne Utility District in Tuolumne County.	Include successes and recommendations

3	10 min.	Owens Valley Water Story (Eastern Sierra)	Possible: Teri Red Owl Executive Director, Owens Valley Indian Water Commission	Use documentary to tell the story of the Owens Valley Paiutes loss of land and water due to outside interest and water deportation	Include successes and recommendations
4	10min.	Coachella Valley (Inland Empire)	Possible: John Covington is locating presenter		Include successes and recommendations
5	10 min.	Karuk (North Coast)	Possible: Leif Hillman, Karuk Jacquelyn Goodwin, Karuk,	Presentation on the Karuk Tribe ongoing story in relation to land use and water use on the Klamath.	Include successes and recommendations
6	10 min	Fresno (Central Valley)	Possible: Charles Ettner		Include successes and recommendations
7	10 min	Chumash (Southern)	Possible: Jackie Gonzalez, Cabazon		Include successes and recommendations
8	15 min.	Questions, summary of recommendations, NEXT STEPS AND CLOSING REMARKS	Moderator		