

According to the new drafted rules on water efficiency, you have effectively created the impossible for watering in the state of california.

As a business owner and employer who is directly involved with the irrigation field, i am against the new proposed MWELo standards.

Not only can it not work it could create job losses statewide with impacts that obviously have not been accounted for!

Sincerely,

Sean Batten
Aamigo Irrigation Supply
Redding, CA.