

California Water Plan eNews

VISION

- Public Health, Safety, Quality of Life
- Vitality, Productivity, Economic Growth
- Healthy Ecosystem, Cultural Heritage

Foundational Actions for SUSTAINABLE WATER USES

- Use Water Efficiently
- Protect Water Quality
- Expand Environmental Stewardship

Initiatives for RELIABLE WATER SUPPLIES

- Implement Integrated Regional Water Management
- Improve Statewide Water and Flood Management Systems

Wednesday's Update

Aug. 21, 2013

Subscribe

Comments/Suggestions

Unsubscribe

Follow DWR
on Facebook and Twitter

This weekly electronic newsletter is designed to keep you current on California Water Plan news. We welcome comments, suggestions and any news tips that may be of interest to water planners.

Save the date for the next Water Plan plenary meeting in Sacramento

Preparations are underway for the next California Water Plan Update 2013 plenary meeting. It will be Oct. 29 and 30, in Sacramento. The agenda was released today. More information will be posted on the Water Plan's calendar webpage as it becomes available.

Climate adaptation strategy workshop series begins next month

Beginning next month, the California Natural Resources Agency will hold a series of public workshops to discuss proposed updates to the state's climate adaptation strategy. The first workshop will be Monday, Sept. 30, in Sacramento. Others will be held in Klamath, Los Angeles, Merced and Truckee. The full schedule and other details are available here.

Water sustainability framework to be presented at council meeting

A detailed presentation of a water sustainability indicators framework is on the agenda of the next California Water Quality Monitoring Council meeting. DWR representatives will explain how agencies can use the framework as a way to help measure water sustainability in California. The meeting will be Wednesday, Aug. 28, in Sacramento.

Groundwater association's two-day conference and meeting set for October

The Groundwater Resources Association of California's biennial conference and annual meeting will be Oct. 8 and 9, in Sacramento. The agenda features a variety of presentations with an overall focus on the challenges of integrating water issues in a changing political and environmental climate. The registration form and fee schedule are available here.

Getting the nitrate out: Two-day workshop will have the latest technologies

A workshop featuring some of the latest technologies to remove nitrates from drinking water will be held Sept. 4 and 5, in Sacramento. The State Water Resources Control Board and the California Department of Public Health are sponsoring the two-day event which will include presentations and discussion on evolving treatments to help meet drinking water standards.

Subscribe to the Delta eNews for the latest information on meetings and developments related to the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta. This free newsletter is published on Thursdays and emailed to your business or personal account. Check it out - last week's issue is posted here.

Click on links below for more information.

Upcoming Meetings

Water Plan Website