

INTEGRATE

ALIGN

INVEST

Wednesday Update*Sept. 6, 2017*

This weekly electronic newsletter is designed to keep you current on California Water Plan news. We welcome comments, suggestions, and any news tips that may be of interest to water planners.

WATER PLAN

CALENDAR

COMMENTS /
SUGGESTIONSSUBSCRIBE /
UNSUBSCRIBE

Web portal provides information on WSIP applications and decisions

The California Water Commission has activated the Water Storage Investment Program \(WSIP\) Project Review Portal. It will provide the public with access to applications and decisions related to the WSIP. All applications submitted by the Aug. 14 deadline are available on the site.

Comment period begins for draft list of Delta emergency responder grants

Public comments are being accepted on the draft list of awards for the Delta Flood Emergency Response Grant Program. Ten projects have been chosen for the draft list. The funding is for local emergency responders within the Delta. The comment period closes on Friday, Sept. 15.

WHO releases guidelines for producing safe drinking water from wastewater

The World Health Organization \(WHO\) has released new guidelines for potable reuse, the production of safe drinking water from municipal wastewater. The document builds on previous WHO guidelines for drinking-water quality. The information is intended for use by water suppliers and regulators to plan and operate potable reuse projects.

Science board to finalize review of Delta Plan conveyance and storage amendment

A final review of the Delta Plan amendment for conveyance and storage systems will be on the agenda of the Delta Independent Science Board on Thursday, Sept. 14, in Sacramento. A webcast will be available. On the following day, board members will take a tour of the Suisun Marsh.

Symposium on Delta and Sierra Nevada tributaries set for next month

A symposium on the tributaries of the Delta and Sierra Nevada will be held Friday, Oct. 27, in Auburn. The Mountain Counties Water Resources Association is hosting the event that will include discussion of current stressors and their potential fixes.

Today is the pre-registration deadline for ACWA's California headwaters program

Today is the deadline to take advantage of pre-registration fees for the Association of California Water Agency's \(ACWA's\) program on California headwaters. It will be Friday, Sept. 8, in Auburn. There will be three panel discussions covering the influence headwaters have on the Sierra, problems when headwaters are not managed properly, and solutions from local agencies.

National water policy trends to be discussed during Ceres webinar

The current trends in national water policy will be explored during a webinar sponsored by Ceres on Thursday, Sept. 14. The topics will include water reuse, green infrastructure projects, and the implications and opportunities available to investors under current U.S. Environmental Protection Agency policies and priorities.